During his time, the Wolves went 50-12. Prior to his return at NSU, Steve was the head assistant coach at Black Hills State University. During his first year, the Yellow Jackets finished in 2nd place in the Dakota Athletic Conference and lost in the conference championship by one point. Steve finished his senior season at Northern State University (Aberdeen, SD) in the spring of 2004. Steve was a starter since his sophomore season. During his career, Steve led the Northern Sun league in assists for three consecutive seasons. Steve finished second all-time at NSU in career assists with 537, and was only the second player in school history to surpass the 500-assist mark. Steve was the starting point guard for NSU teams that won the conference title during his sophomore and junior seasons. As a senior, Steve won the NSIC Defensive Player of the Year award, and the Wolves posted a final record of 24-7, won the conference tournament for the first time, and played in the NCAA D2 national tournament. Steve was named to the All-Tournament Team, and was also named as the NSIC Tournament MVP. Prior to NSU, Steve played at Pomona High School in Arvada, CO, becoming the first ever four-year starter at PHS while leading the state of Colorado in assists during his junior year, being named All-State during his junior and senior season, and tying or breaking 10 school records, including career assists.

During that span he helped Northern win two NSIC Conference Tournaments and played in Three NCAA D2 National Tournaments. Two of those years they reached the Sweet Sixteen, losing both times to the eventual national champions. Wicks was a 4 time NSIC Academic All-Conference team member, and was also a NSIC All-Conference performer on the Court his senior year. Wicks made 61 three point shots and shot a blazing 46% from long range. He also shot 80% from the foul line his senior year.
